

Japanese born pianist, Yuki Mack, has performed throughout the United States, Europe and Asia, including Gilmore International Piano Festival in Michigan (United States), Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival in Michigan (United States), Chamber Music Society of Detroit in Michigan (United States), International Maskfest Festival in San Marino, Art Connection FVG International Music Festival in Italy, International Forest Festival in Czech Republic, Quebec International Music Festival in Canada, to name some.

Her performances include a broad range of piano works including chamber music and as a soloist with orchestras.

Beyond the main-stage, she has performed live on the radio in Sweden, Italy, Poland and the United States, and has appeared in the documentary on PBS. Most notably, in 2006 she was selected as a Steinway Artist – joining an impressive roster of world renown pianists.

Yuki has also partnered with her sister Tomoko to form 'The Mack Sisters' piano duo. Together they were awarded prizes in several national and international competitions. They also recorded several highly acclaimed collection of four-hands piano music albums. their collection of 'Rhapsody', 'American Mosaic', 'Fantasy', and 'Dance Montage' all exhibit their unique sense of interpretation and flawless technique. In addition in 2007, Yuki partnered with renown erhu artist Xiao Dong Wei. Since then, they have produced an erhu and piano album 'Where East Meet West' and performed in many music festivals in United States and in Europe.

Currently, Yuki resides in metro Detroit where she has established herself as a highly sought after educator and performing artist. During the summer when she is not touring she frequently joins the faculty and give concerts at the International Summer Music Festival in Nałęczów, Poland.